KANCHANABURI RIVER KWAI BRIDGE & DEATH RAILWAY FULL-DAY TOUR

Pick up from your hotel lobby and depart to Kanchanaburi (approximately 2 hour drive). Visit the Death Railway Museum and Kanchanaburi War Cemetery, the resting place of Allied prisoners of war who died constructing the Thailand-Burma Railway during World War II, and learn the history behind this significant chapter of the region's past.

Continue to the Bridge over the River Kwai, the famous steel bridge made globally known through wartime history and film. Walk across the bridge for photos and views over the river.

Lunch is provided at a local restaurant.

Board the Death Railway train for a scenic ride along the original wartime route, crossing the dramatic Wang Pho wooden viaduct that hugs the cliffside above the River Kwai Noi — a highlight of the day for its striking river and mountain scenery. Afterwards, return to Bangkok in the evening.
